Kingsbury Texas

News & Information Newsletter

Dear Kingsbury,

Here's the latest on what's going on in Kingsbury!

Mother's Day Weekend

There's all kinds of fun going in downtown Kingsbury on Mother's Day weekend!

First, there will be a group art show opening on Friday, May 10th, featuring the paintings of Jessica Ward of San Antonio, fiber art by Donna Maske of Seguin, and felt work by Katz Ashbury of Seguin. The show opens in Downtown Kingsbury at 6 PM with a cash bar and snacks. Stay for the live music with local band Firewater taking the stage at 8 PM. The show is free and open to the public!

Then, on Saturday, May 11th, there will be another Farm To Table Feast! The four course meal will feature purely local meat and produce as well as an offering from BS Brewing and Blue Lotus Winery. Tickets for the four course meal in Downtown Kingsbury are $50.

To check out the menu and purchase tickets just  Click here

As if all that wasn't enough, there will be a Felting Workshop on Sunday, May 12th. Marti Swanson and Donna Maske will lead a 3 hour fiber arts workshop at 1 PM in Downtown Kingsbury. They will teach students how to print with botanicals using eco-printing on fabric, wet felting to create a vessel, and more! There will be a $50 Materials Fee to attend the workshop. Advanced registration required.

All mothers who attend the wrkshop will receive a free glass of wine or beverage of their choice complements of Habitable Spaces!  Sign up

Kingsbury T-Shirts - Now Available Online!

You can now order your awesome Kingsbury T-Shirt online and have it arrive at your door! Just go to the Kingsbury website and click "SHOP" and select the items you want. Pay with a credit card or PayPal and then just wait for your new, fabulous Kingsbury wear to come to you!

The new Kingsbury T-Shirts have a graphic of downtown Kingsbury on Railway street and the Kingsbury logo: LIVING. SIMPLY. WELL.

That says it all, doesn't it?!

They're $20 and are available in blue, pink, turquoise, red, and the classic black.

The Kingsbury depot T-shirts are also available on the website in the Kingsbury Shoppe that have an image of the old Kingsbury Depot that stood next to the tracks across from the old Post Office. One of the steam locomotives that used to stop here in Kingsbury is shown idling next to the depot, waiting for the next car load of cattle or travelers to New Orleans or San Francisco. The image includes the original writing at the bottom of the picture: "Depot KiNGsbury TEX." The back of the shirt has the Kingsbury logo "LIVING. SIMPLY. WELL." and the Kingsbury website.

They're a bargain at just $10!

Visit the Kingsbury website at www.kingsburytexas.org to get your new T-shirt sent to you today!

Kingsbury News Past

All the news that's fit to print about what was happening in Kingsbury . . .

The March 27, 1904 edition of the Houston Post had a section on "Society News from Texas Towns", as it did most Sundays. The society news from Luling included not one but three. Mrs. Lynch and daughter, Ethel visited Luling, Mr. Gumbiner visited family and friends in Kingsbury, and Rev. Harty held services at the Kingsbury Baptist Church.

In other 1904 news, Ms. Hennessy has some news for whoever might find her engraved, gold umbrella handle (is that a thing?) - "no good to anyone except owner", get your new, wooden cabinet refrigerator for $16.50, Grant's tomb is too cold, and M.A. Mansel is looking for a lost one-eyed bay. Also, Houston Hdw. Co. has bird cages to cleavers to "wire rat traps" and so much more, Searchlite is the "best illuminating oil" for your lamps, Beaumont is overrun with some strange caterpillar, and a picture of the latest Easter fashions.

Roland Merz Mule Cart
