Kingsbury News Past

All the news that's fit to print about what was happening in Kingsbury . . .

The July 22, 1875 edition of the San Antonio Daily Express had the Arrivals and Departures of people on the Austin stagecoach and the Kingsbury stagecoach. Kingsbury was still the last station on the Galveston Harrisburg & San Antonio railroad from Houston and you had to pick up the stage to get any further west.

Also in 1875, you can get a meal at Dietrich's for "25 and 50 cts." or you can stay there where they have "a good camp yard" (the "A" is upside down in YARD), Nic. Tengg has books and newspapers in German and English, and Saratoga Baths has a Ladies Saloon for "25 cents extra" and is open from 3 to 8 for "Ladies and their escorts (in full bathing costumes)". Don't forget that bathing costume! The Alamo Stable not only has livery and buggies but also ambulances and hearses, Bell & Bros. has "fine pocket and table cutlery" (table cutlery I get, but what is pocket cutlery?), and Mr. Leal has "another arrival of sheep". There's fresh fish (or "fishes" as it says here) at Military Plaza that are "alive and kicking", and get your meal ground from your own corn at Laux's Steam-Mill.

It's getting drier and drier and the number of counties in Texas with a burn ban is quickly growing.

Texas is now up to 68 counties with a burn ban in place (there were 60 last week).

There is currently no burn ban for Guadalupe County. But it is always wise to take care when you are:

- 🔥 Welding, cutting, and grinding or any activity that causes a spark
- 🔥 Burning household trash
- 🔥 Burning of other items

As always, please take precautions and report any fire hazards immediately to the Kingsbury Volunteer Fire Department at 639-4499. To report a fire, please dial 911.
